About ForCarol.com

On Saturday Sept 18, 2010, 4 wonderful Tracy kids lost their lives in a senseless automobile accident. One was our lovely, intelligent friend, Carol Phan.

In her honor, ForCarol.com is dedicated to stopping teen speeding or other unsafe practices when getting behind the wheel.

The ForCarol.com web site (and Facebook page) are fun sites to visit. You can watch movie trailers, read really cool movie reviews, learn, and keep up with current events. BUT....the message will always be there: Drive Safe! Never Forget. Maybe the subliminal message will sink in better than the in-your-face message that teens rebel against. Oh yeah...parents YOU need to ENFORCE curfews.

Remember this: Would you rather fight with your teen....or bury them?

We love you Carol...
